Piggly Wiggly

- the first modern American supermarket, opened 100 years ago.

The first self-service grocery store, Piggly Wiggly, was opened in 1916 in Memphis, Tennessee, by Clarence Saunders, an inventor and entrepreneur. Prior to this innovation, grocery stores operated "over the counter," with customers asking a grocer to retrieve items from inventory. Saunders' invention allowed a much smaller number of clerks to service the customers, proving successful (according to a 1929 issue of Time) "partly because of its novelty, partly because neat packages and large advertising appropriations have made retail grocery selling almost an automatic procedure."

JUMBLE

Unscramble these four Jumbles, one letter to each square, to form four ordinary words.

FEZOR

WOYNS

GAHOME

CEETIN

Now arrange the circled letters to form the surprise answer, as suggested by the above cartoon.

The Great Atlantic & Pacific

Tea Company, better known as A&P, was an American chain of grocery stores that operated from 1859 to 2015.<sup>[1]</sup> From 1915 through 1975, A&P was the largest grocery retailer in the United States (and, until 1965, the largest U.S. retailer of any kind).<sup>[2]</sup>

A&P was considered an American icon that, according to The Wall Street Journal, "was as well known as McDonald's or Google is today", and was "the Walmart before Walmart".
